

OHIO MASONIC HOME

Chief Executive Officer's Message

We are the living expression of our Masonic Obligation- we serve as the trusted partner to help people age respectfully: how they want, where they want.

We proudly display our mission statement throughout our campuses because it is what serves as the basis of our organization's very existence, and provides a foundation for how we treat those we serve. We also believe that it has to be more than just words on the walls that adorn our buildings, and we believe the importance of instilling it in each and every employee that walks through our doors.

I immediately saw our mission in motion on day one.

Symbolically, we believe in what the Square and Compass represent; the square, to square our actions; the compass, to circumscribe and keep us within bounds with all mankind. The Masonic fraternity is built upon the principles of brotherly love, relief and truth. Thus, its involvement in charitable work of all types is a natural, practical representation of this philosophy; and the establishment of the Ohio Masonic Home (OMH) is a great example of that philosophy translated into actual service.

When I joined OMH a little more than two years ago as the CFO, I immediately saw our mission in motion on day one. From the care we provide at any of our campuses spread across the state, to the assistance given through our very own OMH Resource Center that connects people to the programs and services necessary to assist them during their greatest hour of need, our mission is truly a living one.

Now that I have been blessed to serve as CEO, I offer my promise to continue to honor our Masonic Obligation and serve as the trusted partner to walk alongside those on their aging journey. I can tell you that this is a role I do not take lightly. I want to offer my sincerest thanks and gratitude to all of you who have bestowed this great honor upon me, especially retired CEO Tom Stofac, for setting this great organization down the right path toward future success.

I hope in the days, months and years to follow, I have the opportunity to meet you; the donors and supporters of the Ohio Masonic Home. Because of you, we are able to not only sustain, but expand our services and provide a dignified and respectful aging journey to those who need it most.

Sincerely,
Scott Buchanan
CEO, Ohio Masonic Home
